

Teaching evaluation summary

Amelia E. Kimball

Boston University

Scores are on a 5-point scale (5 being the highest possible score). Higher scores indicate higher teaching evaluations. The “Mean score” is the section average of the response to Rate the instructor’s overall teaching effectiveness, on a scale from 1=poor to 5=excellent.

course	Term	No. of forms	Mean Score
Foundations of Language	Fall 2011	12	4.8	No campus average available
	Fall 2011	13	4.9
	Fall 2011	14	4.8
	Spring 2012	12	4.8
	Spring 2012	18	4.9
	Spring 2012	16	4.9

University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign

Scores are on a 5-point scale (5 being the highest possible score). Higher scores indicate higher teaching evaluations. The “mean score” is the section average of the response to Rate the instructor’s overall teaching effectiveness on a scale from 1=exceptionally low to 5=exceptionally high.

course	Term	No. of forms	Mean score	Comparison to campus-wide scores
Introduction to Language Science	Spring 2015	24	4.7	High Average (Top 30%)
	Fall 2015	20	4.8	High (Top 10%)
	Fall 2015	24	4.8	High (Top 10%)
	Spring 2016	27	4.7	High Average (Top 30%)
	Spring 2016	20	4.8	High (Top 10%)

Scans of all teaching evaluations from section AD4 from Spring 2016 at the University of Illinois are attached. Copies of all teaching evaluations referenced in the above summary are available upon request.